

JOB DESCRIPTION

College Office Assistant

College Background

Since its foundation in 1869, Girton College has led the way in educational empowerment. The College was founded as the UK's first residential institution for the higher education of women and was part of an unstoppable global movement for full participation of women in political, professional and scholarly life. Girton has been fully mixed since 1979 and remains an inclusive, diverse, and supportive community that strives for excellence. The College has a long history of working to open access to a world class education for under-represented communities.

Girton is a relaxed, friendly and close-knit college set in 50 acres of greenbelt that provides a stimulating environment for its students, staff and Fellows. The College offers a holistic educational experience that combines academic rigour with a vibrant social scene as well as excellent welfare provision. It has some 120 Fellows in all, around 80 of whom are fully involved in day-to-day governance, teaching and research. In addition, the College depends on the hard work of over 135 administrative and operational staff who ensure the smooth running of Girton's buildings, services and its estate. Currently, the student community comprises 537 undergraduates and 330 postgraduates.

- Assist with the production and distribution of the Mistress's Christmas Cards and postcards for end of academic year results.
- Any other office duties as identified by the Mistress or her EA as pertinent to the function of the College Office.

Administrative support to the Secretary to Council

Under the direction of the Secretary to Council, typical duties and responsibilities include:

- Assist Secretary to Council in preparing summaries of Council minutes and decisions for distribution to agreed recipients; and to archive signed Council minutes as required.
- Assist with the production and distribution of correspondence issued by the College Council.
- Responsible for updating and maintaining the College Ordinances, on both internal and external platforms.
- Responsible for updating and maintaining the Council and Committee list, and notifying Secretary to Council when memberships are nearing the end of their term
- Responsible for updating and maintaining the Dining Rights list and the mailing list, and notifying Secretary to Council when memberships are nearing the end of their term.
- Responsible for activities pertaining to new Fellows' induction and regular Fellows' information including:-
 - Updating, circulating and maintaining the Fellows' Guide and Fellows' Induction Pack, reviewing with stakeholders on an annual basis.
 - o Organising the New Fellows' Induction and related activities.
- Responsible for organising the Council Annual Awayday, in liaison with Secretary to Council.
- Other administrative support as reasonably identified by the Secretary to Council.

General administrative support to the College Office

- Manage the Mistress's Office inbox and forward email correspondence to relevant members of staff as necessary.
- General office duties such as managing general enquiries via all communication channels, photocopying, printing, and maintaining office supplies i.e. refreshments etc.
- Assist with the maintenance of all College Office associated electronic and hard copy records in line with GDPR regulations and best practice, including the contact database, Raiser's Edge.
- Participate in specific internal projects under the direction of the EA to the Mistress or Secretary to Council as agreed.
- Pro-actively manage, review and complete Microsoft Teams tasks.
- Work with the Comms Team on the production of a termly College upcoming events highlights poster and a full list of College events for the Mistress to circulate via email to the Fellows and Staff.
 - Edit the events list to reflect events relevant to the Dining Rights members and circulate to the mailing list on a termly basis.
- Any other agreed tasks necessary to fulfil the role successfully.

Other roles include but are not limited to

- Administrative work for, and in liaison with, the Chaplain:
 - Produce and order the Chapel Term Cards.
 - o Produce and print the Chapel Services poster, Orders of Service or other Chapel service booklets, as required.
 - Organise and coordinate activities pertaining to delivery of the All Souls Commemorative Evensong Service

The post holder will be required to work in accordance with College policies and procedures.

The post holder will be expected to participate in training designed to minimise occupational risks. This may include manual handling training, safe use of Display Screen Equipment and other Health & Safety training as advised.

This job description may be subject to change, following consultation between the appropriate College Officers and the post holder.

Every job description in the organisation will be subject to a review on an annual basis at the time of the PDR meeting and may be reviewed as a result of a change in strategic direction or operational requirements. It is the shared responsibility of the role holder and their line manager to ensure that job descriptions are kept up to date.
